My Dear Ritchie: 3x
Not much to say
except that I'll miss
you. Maybe next time I come around your mother might have forgotten who
I am; I hope so.
Well anyway, speak
well of me and when
I'm a big shot some day
you can look at my picture and say "I used to know him once."
Well good-bye and good luck and I'll be seeing you, football-
P.S. 7-6. Lots of X's.

Dear Ruth,
I haven't known you long, but I hope to see a lot of you and hope my assistance doesn't end
this summer.
Cheers and Walter

CLASS SONG

◈ ◈ ◈

Music by Carl Vander Burg

Our voices twine a laurel wreath of song
With which to fondly crown thee, Union High.
Our grateful hearts and thoughts to thee belong.
Oh Union, we exalt thee to the sky.

Thy light shall guide our paths through coming years
Thy royal banner ne'er shall cease to fly;
Thy Lincoln-spirit will expel our fears;
To thee we sing in honor, Union High!

CHORUS:

Dear Union High, thy name will always live.
O Union High, our pledge of faith we give.
Where'er we be, where'er our footsteps roam
Our Alma Mater e'er will be our home.
O Union, we will cling to honest toil,
From faithful service we will not recoil
O Union, every heart cries "Loyalty!"
Remain, dear Union High, our memory.

—Stephanie Sierz

CLASS MARCH

Music by Bronislaus Janiak

Farewell! farewell! dear Union High!
Wherever we may stray
Fond recollections of our school
Will ever with us stay.

Through the years thou'st led us on
The star of truth to find.
We'll follow still this lonely gleam
That liberates mankind.

Thus striving with a loyal aim,
Thy name, O Union High,
Honored with e'erlasting fame
Shall stand both far and nigh.

CHORUS:

Farewell to our Alma Mater,
May she ever lead the line;
Her colors e'er be lifted high
Above the walls of time.
Among the lists of honor
We'll hear her name proclaimed;
The name of our Alma Mater,
The name of Union High.

—Henry De Vries

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

THE National Honor Society is the only national organization that has a chapter in Union High School. To become a member of this chapter is, therefore, one of the outstanding honors of the school.

The objectives of the National Honor society are scholarship, service, leadership, character.

Candidates eligible must stand in the first third of their respective classes in scholarship. The other objectives may be explained as follows:

1. Service is interpreted as a willingness to render cheerfully and enthusiastically any service to the school. This service may be in school procedure or student government; in courtesy to visitors or in acting as big brothers or sisters to underclassmen; in offering oneself as a representative of class or school in competition.

2. Leadership is interpreted to mean demonstrating a high degree of initiative in classroom activities which will encourage higher scholarship in all; successfully holding committee chairmanships and other responsible positions; contributing ideas which may be of help in the life of the school.

3. Recognition for character may be gained by meeting individual obligations promptly and completely; by actively helping to rid the school of bad influences; by constantly demonstrating honesty, reliability, promptness, achievement, and morality.

Membership is limited to fifteen per cent of the senior class. The Union chapter this year has thirty-two members. Graduate membership numbers seventy-one.

Officers for the first semester were: President, Sarah Allen; vice-president, Oscar Matzat; secretary, Rose Favel. Present officers are: President, Josephine Poggi; vice-president, Alice Korstange; secretary, Rose Flynn.

Miss Grace Thomasma, senior girls' adviser, and Mr. Fred Voss, senior boys' adviser, are the sponsors of this organization.

SENIOR PLAY

"THE Whole Town's Talking", a farce by John Emerson and Anita Loos, was the play presented by the senior class on the evening of February 23 and 24, and the afternoon of March 2. A double cast of girls and a single cast of boys were used.

Henry Simmons, a manufacturer, played by Stanley Kolenda, desires a son-in-law who is interested in his business, but meets with opposition from his daughter, Ethel, enacted by Dorothy Gravelyn and Eleanor Heileman. Through an arranged love affair between Simmon's junior partner portrayed by James Barrows, and an actress, impersonated by Lorraine Ickewitz and Helen Grigel, the daughter is finally convinced that Chester is the proper man to be her husband. A series of hilarious situations kept the audience amused for two hours.

Other members of the cast were Frances Hooper and Sarah Allen as the suspicious wife; Willard De Bruyn as the French lover; Mary Louise Huxoll, Lucille Zachariason, Doris Bauch and Janet Van Driel as Ethel's friends; Frank Kowrack as the motion picture director; Leona Blasen and Anne Bendokaitis as the maid; Veatrice Lossing and Josephine Poggi as the dancing teacher; and Sulo Lageroos as the taxi driver.

CLASS WILL

WE, the Senior Class of Union High School, city of Grand Rapids, County of Kent, state of Michigan of the United States of America, in the Western Hemisphere of the Earth, third planet of the Universe, realizing that we are about to be granted parole from this worthy institution earnestly dedicated to the furtherance of classical and worldly knowledge, and being in comparatively sound minds and strong bodies, do hereby make this our last will and testament, thus making null and void all our previous wills.

To the school in toto:

*We bequeath the benefit of our worthy and hard-earned accomplishments in social, academic, and other lines, and as good measure we add the secret of our success in extorting A's from a perverse faculty.

To rising zoologist successors:

*We relegate the pleasure derived from mercilessly dissecting pickled grasshoppers, fishes, or what have you.

To Mrs. Elizabeth Slaght:

*We consign the job of teaching the boys who have chosen to follow the profession of that great exponent of the culinary art, Oscar of the Waldorf, to bake biscuits to eat—not to be used in the shot put.

To the students of commercial law:

*We cede the privilege of arriving in class the first day with a remarkably original outline already in the latest stages of development.

To the coming seniors:

*We intrust the prestige and honor of becoming the much privileged journalists who control and edit Union's two world-famous publications, The Union High News and The Aurora.

*We deliver Miss Grace Thomasma and Mr. Fred Voss, whose sagacious and soothing oratory calm tumultuous senior meetings.

*We request that the vast funds of the senior class be divided evenly between establishing a home for the feeble minded whose brains have "dimmed" during their school career, and a lunch room covering five acres where everyone will have elbow room and be served by waitresses whose extraordinary duty it is to remove the trays. We trust this mission will be faithfully carried out by the Class of '34.

We do hereby, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, declare this to be our last will and testament, on the seventeenth day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

TEN YEARS FROM NOW

Will retail selling classes have turned out salesmen that can sell four-family flats to people wanting five-room bungalows?

Will would-be secretaries be taking dictation from dime store floorwalkers or will they be dictating to the wealthy bosses they married?

Will the National Honor Society members' training as assembly ushers have helped them gain jobs as such in theaters?

I WONDER?

FOOTBALL

Howard Zindel

FOOTBALL had only a fair season this year. In the city race Union virtually broke even with two wins, three losses, and a tie. The team won an impressive victory over Traverse City to start the season, but later found the going tougher. Union ended the season with a 6-0 victory over South, its traditional rival.

Three members of the team will be lost by graduation. One is Howard Zindel, who played a fine aggressive game all year. He was awarded a place on both the all-city and all-state teams. Another loss is Richard King, Union's fine center, who was on the all-city second team last year. Fred Vanderlinde will also be missed next year. He has been the fastest man on the squad for the past two seasons.

Richard King

Coach Hess will have fourteen letter men back next fall. They are Szczepaniuk, Burns, Grams, Miknavich, Smith, Kelly, Wiest, Schaubel, Rinkevich, Henk, Jurewicz, Boorstein, Olinzak, and Novakowski.

Union's stellar tackle, Frank Szczepaniuk, was elected captain of the 1933 team.

The girls who try to rope us.

JUNIORS AIR THEIR VIEWS

JUNIORS seriously consider personality, charm, cleverness, originality, and scholarship in naming whom they consider the outstanding senior in the class of '33.

Sarah Allen is chosen by 10 out of the 27 juniors questioned. Her personality and all around ability are admired by Carmen Maines, Sophie Siegel, Ruth Plachecki, and Verna Johnson. "She's a good student", emphasize Lois Ellis, Rena Bajema, and Nancy Trenis. "She's charming," assert Barbara Harrigan, Donna Baltes, and John Coffee.

"Frank Kowrack is the outstanding senior," smiles Robert Grams. "He's got personality and he's a good fellow." Louis Boorstein, Estelle Czubaj, Lillian Flak, June Van Os, Frank Szczepaniuk, and Harry Vanderburg agree with Bob.

"Stanley Kolenda is admirable for his original ideas, forceful personality, and naturalness," declares Myron Orwant. Wilma Rykema and Peggy Fox, too, choose Stanley for his leadership and natural executive ability.

The all-around ability of James Barrows is admired by Aileen "Red" Myers and Lena Miller.

"Maurine Coffee is outstanding because of her excellent handling of the Union High News", maintains Sydney Sachs. "She's clever," Claudia Rauser exclaims.

Maude Stratton has distinguished herself in activities, according to Matilda Crater.

"Molly Kowaliszyn is full of pep. She's smart and likable," Cora Vanden Bos declares thoughtfully.

—Frances Czubaj

SENIORS VIEW THEIR HEIRS

TO BE outstanding a junior must be an all-around good student, a good sport, friendly, and possessed of a bubbling sense of humor—at least so say the seniors.

"Barbara Harrigan is pleasant and cheerful," says Oscar Matzat. For unknown reasons Willard Miller also prefers Barbara.

Verna Johnson is the choice of Ethel Miller and Viola Anderson. "She's a good student and so friendly!" they declare.

Of Henry Kowalski, Lawrence Van Manen exclaims, "That boy has brains!"

Eleanor Heileman votes for Tom and Maxine Irwin because they are good sports and sociable.

Russell Van Dussen selects Ronald Bier as his favorite because they both play the piano and "see each other often".

Carmen Mains is charming to everyone," is Eunice Nowacki's comment. But Carl Vander Burg chooses her because she "has a nice smile, is pretty, courteous, interesting to talk to, and appreciative of good music."

"Donna Baltes is my idea of the best junior," states Maude Stratton reflectively.

The sport enthusiast, Minnea Zindel, and the famous actor, James Barrows, both acclaim Dorothy Cutler their favorite.

Jake Harlick takes first place with Lippert Emden, Meyer Margolis, and Louis Fixler.

Sarah Allen lauds the feats of John Coffee. "He is not only apt in scholastics, but has made good in athletics," explains Sarah.
